RULES AND HORSE SHOW STANDARDS

All Recognized Shows and exhibitors shall be governed by the Bylaws, Rules and Horse Show Standards of the Association except in those instances in which the Recognized Shows are also recognized by the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) and there is a conflict with the rules of the USEF, in which case rules of the USEF will prevail. Where point systems of the Annual Awards conflict, Bylaws, Rules and Horse Show Standards of the Association will prevail. Any class specifications or conditions governing operations of the classes not covered by the Association Rule Book will be governed by the current USEF Rule Book.

A knowledge and compliance of the Bylaws, Rules and Horse Show Standards of the Association is required of each member when exhibiting at a Recognized Show.

It is obvious that, however complete the Bylaws, Rules and Horse Show Standards of the Association may be, they never can cover all possible situations which may arise. If a matter cannot be solved by interpreting the Bylaws, Rules and Horse Show Standards of the Association to the letter, the solution to be adopted by those responsible should lie in a principle which follows as nearly as possible the spirit intended in the development of these Bylaws, Rules and Horse Show Standards of the Association.

Additionally, divisional championships and reserves will not be awarded if there are not a minimum of two over fences classes and a hack in hunters, or three jumping classes in jumpers, which have three entries compete in and complete each class in the division. Lastly, hack classes in hunter divisions will not count for points, even with a minimum of three completing entries if there is not at least one over fences class in the division with the minimum three entries competing and completing. See Rule 2, Part 3, Prize Ribbons, for more information on awarding championships in case of a tie.
 - b. Basic points are awarded for each place as follows: 1st=10, 2nd=6, 3rd=4, 4th=2, 5th=1, 6th=1/2, and then are multiplied by the below multipliers based on the number of entries competing in and completing each class. If a divisional championship and reserve is applicable (see above section a.), then the competitors will receive an additional 10 points for champion and 6 for reserve, with no multiplier.

17-24 entries	Triple points
10-16 entries	Double points

In order to have a show Recognized by the CHJA, the show's management must comply with the following requirements:

A. Applications

For existing affiliated shows with carryover dates, or existing affiliated shows which want to add new dates, a properly completed online application, together with required Show Affiliation Fees must be received at least 30 days prior to the proposed show date. Applications for carryover show dates held in the preceding Show Year, or for new dates in the current show year, will be available on the password protected CHJA online application system, and existing affiliated shows will be provided with user name and password credentials to access this site.

Once credentials are provided, applications must be submitted online. If an existing affiliate does submit paper applications, either for carryover or new dates, there will be an additional $50 fee per show date for processing.

Fees for existing affiliates' dates are preferred to be paid online via PayPal, but checks will be accepted (see address of Treasurer on chja.net). However, no date will be approved prior to payment being received.

For new affiliates, a properly completed paper application, together with a check for required Show Affiliation Fees must be received at least 60 days prior to the proposed show date. An application can be submitted by printing the application which is on the CHJA web site (www.chja.net, under Show Management). For new affiliates, there is no additional $50 fee per show. See Standards Department on website for mailing address.

Once a new affiliate has a show approved for the first time, they will be provided with online credentials, and all future show applications must be submitted online. (Replaces 2017 first two paragraphs. Approved January 29, 2018.)

We will reserve carryover show dates for shows held in the preceding Show Year until September 15 of the upcoming year. This date may be changed with written notification. If a properly completed application, together with all required fees is not entered online or postmarked by this deadline, then the date shall be considered open.

Applications for open show dates will be approved on a first received basis.

The Recognized show's manager and secretary must be Senior Members of the CHJA.

D. Divisions Offered

At least three Recognized Divisions must be offered.

1. Each Recognized Show must have a prize list and entry blank. The Prize List must:

a. Be submitted in proof form to the CHJA Standards Secretary at least two weeks prior to printing and/or posting to the Recognized show's web site (earlier submission is encouraged) in order that the Standards Committee can assure that the prize list conforms to CHJA specifications (outlined below). Mail, faxing, or email is acceptable (see www.CHJA.net, Standards, for contact information).

b. If the prize list is not submitted in accordance with the above requirement, or any subsequent requested edits or changes to align with CHJA standards are not made to the printed and/or web site version of the prize list, the CHJA shall not recognize Classes that do not conform to CHJA specifications. e. Clearly indicate which Divisions, Sections or Classes are recognized by the CHJA. It is not necessary to provide full class or division descriptions, but it is necessary to indicate which will receive CHJA points.

Note: One option would be to put "CHJA points" next to the header of each equitation, hunter or jumper division that will be run according to CHJA specifications. Another option would be to put a list of those classes in the Rules and Regulations section of the prize list as NEHC requires. You could also identify the CHJA classes in the timetable.

l. If a show chooses not to print and mail out its final prize list, with all requested edits and changes, but instead to post it online, a complete version of the final prize list as approved by the CHJA Standards MUST be posted on the Recognized show's web site so members can easily access it.

1. The URL address of this site should be provided to the CHJA (either on the show's recognition application or when the show sends the prize list for proofing) so the CHJA can post it on the CHJA.net site.

2. If a show does not have its own site, then it must provide the URL where the complete version will be posted. It is the responsibility of the Recognized show's management to make certain that this has been done. FAILURE TO POST THE RECOGNIZED SHOW'S PRIZE LIST SHALL RESULT IN A FINE AND MAY RESULT IN OTHER DISCIPLINARY ACTION.

m. If a Recognized show chooses to post its prize list online but then to mail out a shortened version of its prize list, or some other mailed reminder for members of the show date and/or schedule, this version must CLEARLY indicate what classes, divisions, or sections are CHJA recognized or CLEARLY indicate the URL where the complete version is posted and this information can be obtained. FAILURE TO PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION AND/OR THE URL SHALL RESULT IN A FINE AND MAY RESULT IN OTHER DISCIPLINARY ACTION.

Recognized shows cancelled between 30 and 60 days prior to the show's date will not have their affiliation fees returned. Recognized shows canceled less than 30 days prior to the show's date will not have their affiliation fees returned and will be imposed a fine of $200 unless the cancellation is due to an Act of God such as a natural disaster or extreme weather conditions.

"Mulligan Exception:" In addition, one (1) time per show year, per Recognized show manager, if a cancellation is caused by a "financial hardship," e.g., lack of entries, change of ownership/management, last minute venue issues, the $200 fine will also be waived. The written cancellation (email is acceptable) should include the specific reason in order to be considered for a waiver of the fine.

Those Recognized shows canceled for two consecutive years for a reason other than an Act of God will lose that show date and the date shall be considered open. Applications for open Recognized show dates will be approved on a first received basis.

Legal Definition of Act of God: An event that directly and exclusively results from the occurrence of natural causes that could not have been prevented by the exercise of foresight or caution.

The Affiliate, and show management on its behalf, understand that it shall be solely responsible and liable for all acts, conduct, hazards, and casualties related to the Affiliated Show. By submitting the application to become a C.H.J.A. INC. Affiliated Show and/or by accepting affiliation with C.H.J.A. INC., show management, on behalf of the affiliate, agrees to indemnify, hold harmless and defend C.H.J.A. INC., and its officers, employees, representatives, agents, and volunteers from and against all claims, suits, actions, causes of action damages, losses, costs, and expenses whatsoever, including reasonable attorney fees, brought by or on behalf of any show participant, competitor, spectator, property owner, horse owner, or other person, with regard to any horse show and/or related activities and/or conduct, contemplated by, or related in any way to, the affiliation relationship between the Affiliate and C.H.J.A. J. Mileage Limitation

The distance between recognized CHJA competitions must be at least 40 radius miles.

K. Local Member Show

1. The local member show category allows a show that is USEF or NEHC recognized to offer CHJA Medal classes. These local member shows must be run on the weekdays Monday through Friday. Shows can be recognized as a Regular member show if they are held on a nationally recognized holiday (e.g., Memorial Day, President's Day, Columbus Day).

O. Out of State Show Approvals

Out-of-state shows have no date carryover rights from year to year. Their dates will be considered for approval anew each year, but only after in-state shows have received approval of both their carryover dates and any new dates for which they have properly applied. After October 1, applications for out-of-state shows will be considered, in the order they were received. However, no out-of-state show will receive approval for a date on which an in-state show has already been approved, regardless of mileage.

P. Combining Classes

1. Combining Hunter, Equitation and Jumper Divisions

If, on the day of a Recognized show, any of the following divisions do not fill according to CHJA requirements of a minimum of three entries, then the Recognized show's management may combine the classes but must run each of the combined divisions at the appropriate height according to CHJA rules for that division.

Riders competing in the combined class shall accumulate points in their appropriate division.

If the prize list indicates in advance that any of these divisions will be combined, then they will not be pointed by the CHJA. (Exception: Low Children's Jumpers and Low Adult Amateur Jumpers, and High Children's Jumpers and High Adult Amateur Jumpers may be pre-combined in the prize list as Low Children's/Adult Jumpers and High Children's/Adult Jumpers.*)

Allowing these divisions to be combined on the day of the Recognized show is to benefit CHJA members that are at the show but find the divisions they entered do not have the minimum three entrants.

Riders competing in the combined class shall accumulate points in their appropriate CHJA Medal Class.

b. CHJA Children's Medal and CHJA Modified Adult Medal

If, on the day of a Recognized show, either a CHJA Children's Medal or a CHJA Modified Adult Medal qualifying class does not fill according to CHJA requirements of a minimum of four entries, then the show's management may combine the classes. Riders competing in the combined class shall accumulate points in their appropriate Medal Class.
